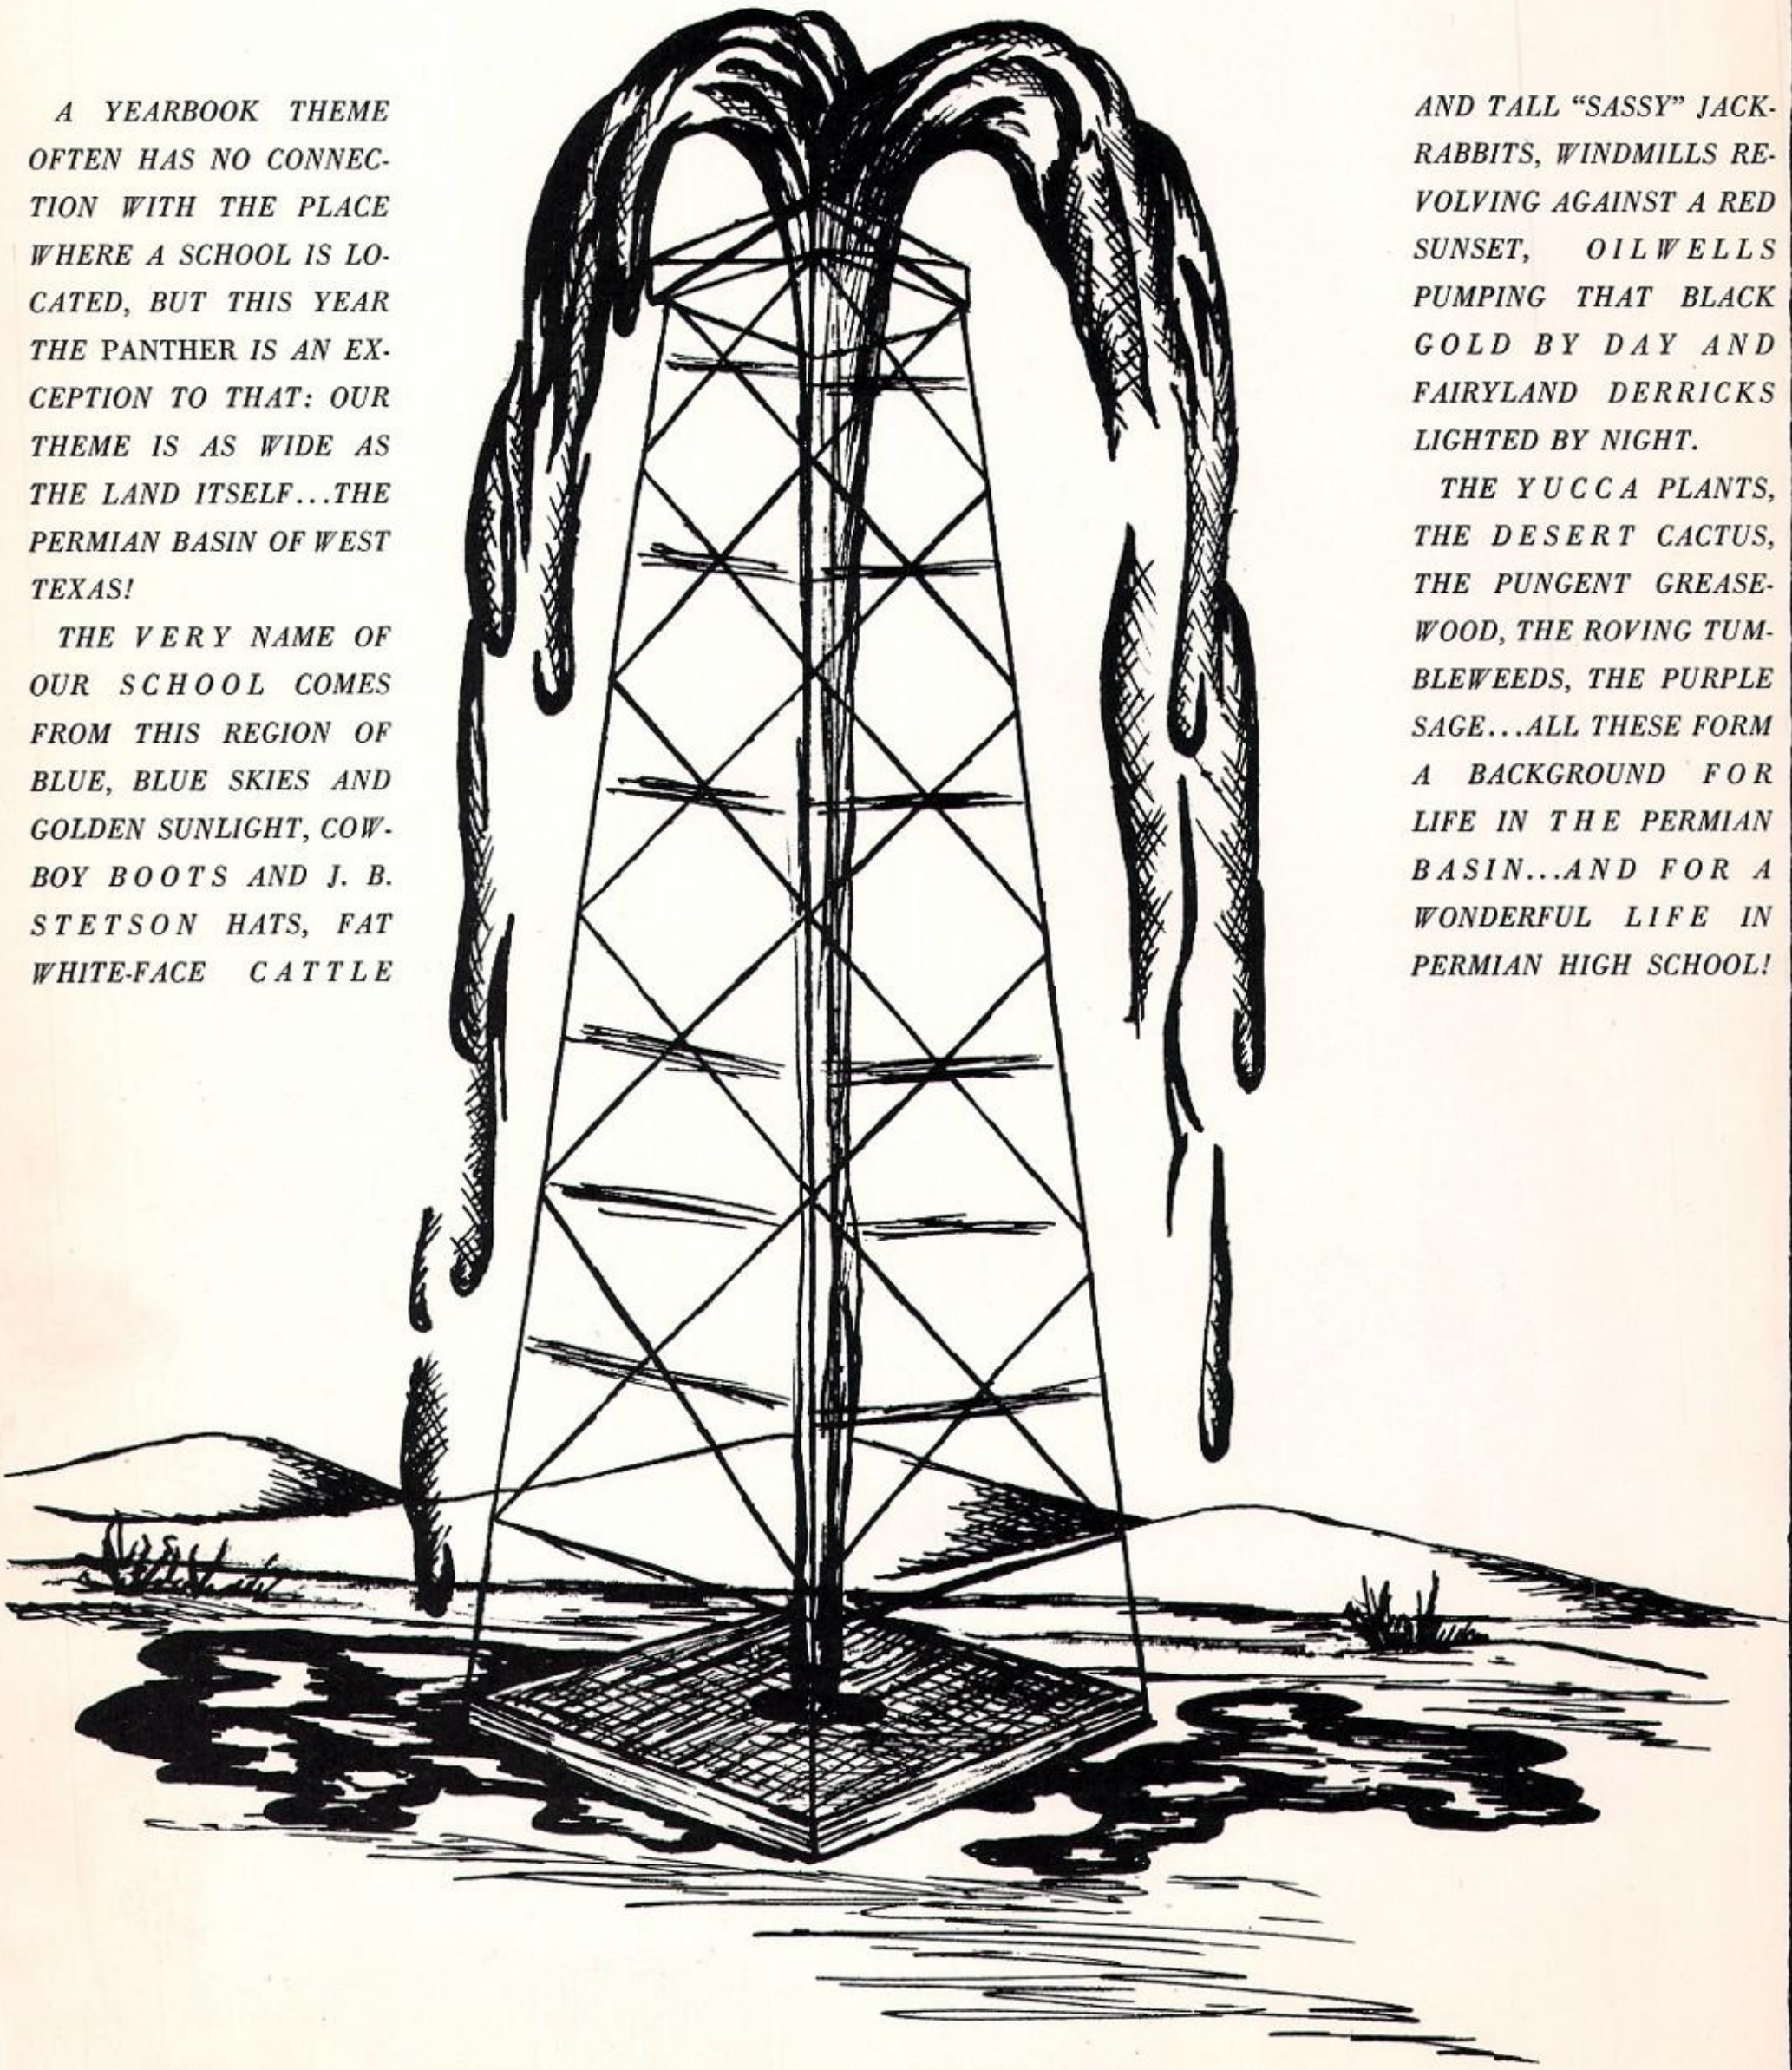
A Salute To West Texas . . .

A YEARBOOK THEME OFTEN HAS NO CONNECTION WITH THE PLACE WHERE A SCHOOL IS LOCATED, BUT THIS YEAR THE PANTHER IS AN EXCEPTION TO THAT: OUR THEME IS AS WIDE AS THE LAND ITSELF...THE PERMIAN BASIN OF WEST TEXAS!

THE VERY NAME OF OUR SCHOOL COMES FROM THIS REGION OF BLUE, BLUE SKIES AND GOLDEN SUNLIGHT, COWBOY BOOTS AND J. B. STETSON HATS, FAT WHITE-FACE CATTLE AND TALL "SASSY" JACKRABBITS, WINDMILLS REVOLVING AGAINST A RED SUNSET, OILWELLS PUMPING THAT BLACK GOLD BY DAY AND FAIRYLAND DERRICKS LIGHTED BY NIGHT.

THE YUCCA PLANTS, THE DESERT CACTUS, THE PUNGENT GREASEWOOD, THE ROVING TUMBLEWEEDS, THE PURPLE SAGE...ALL THESE FORM A BACKGROUND FOR LIFE IN THE PERMIAN BASIN...AND FOR A WONDERFUL LIFE IN PERMIAN HIGH SCHOOL!



Dedication . . . .

To Mr. J. R. Colgin
Assistant Principal

We, the staff and sponsor of the PANTHER, do affectionately dedicate this book.

Because of your unfailing desire to help everyone connected with our school...because you are genuinely interested in the welfare of every student and teacher...because you are the type of man everyone can look up to...we call this 1964 PANTHER, your book!

A Special Tribute To Mrs. Margaret Davis . . .

Because this is her last year at Permian, the PANTHER staff and sponsor wish to pay tribute to a wonderful teacher whose memory will remain forever in the hearts of all who knew her. May your years of retirement be long and happy, Mrs. Davis, and may your sunny disposition and cheerful approach to living never fade away.

Favorite Teacher

For the fourth consecutive year a man has been chosen as a favorite teacher among Permian High students. Presenting Mr. Tommy Boley!

Mr. Boley is tops as an English teacher, but more than that he is a friend to every student, boy or girl, with whom he comes in contact. He is interested in our troubles as well as our triumphs. He is a loyal Panther in all school activities, but he presents at all times the kind of model that students are wise to follow.

And so to "T.J.," a sincere salute as Teacher-of-the-Year!

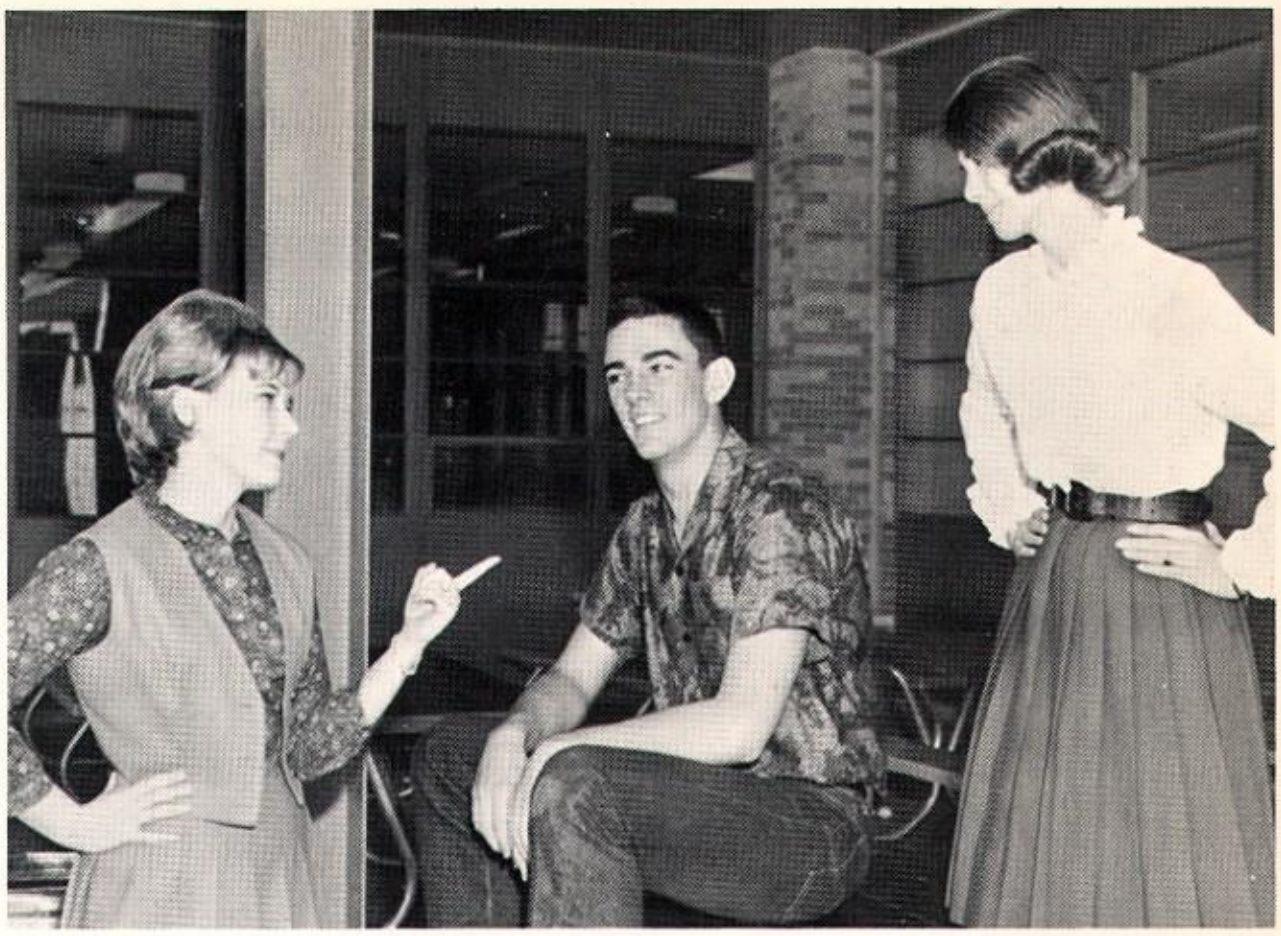
Juniors worked hard to raise school spirit.

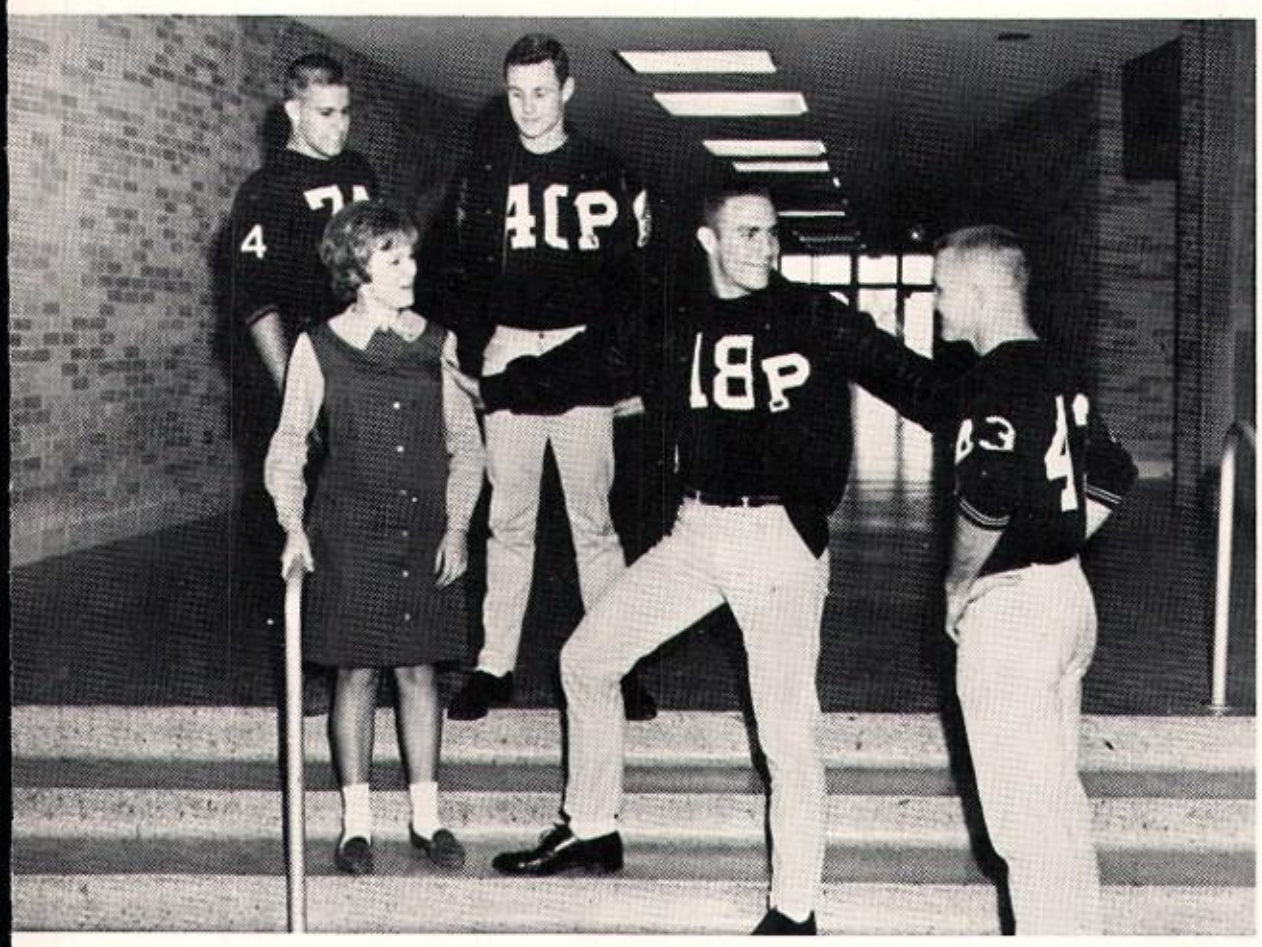
No, Tommy, we're just doing the twosies.

Pick on someone your own size.

Work, Work Work,.....Study, Study, Stud
No time for play.

Carl enjoyed Twirp Week!





Go to your corners and come out fighting.

Frankie and her public!

And after much hard work, the student directory was put together.

We feel that we've earned them.

"Mr. Sibley, what YOU said!!!"

Junior Faces.....

.....Show up everywhere.

We had the right idea!!

"House of Laughs! What's your uproar?"

Fish Corral

Can Mrs. Hatfield teach even Fish to read?

This is what happens to Fish who talk back to Seniors!

That real school spirit!

They went that away!

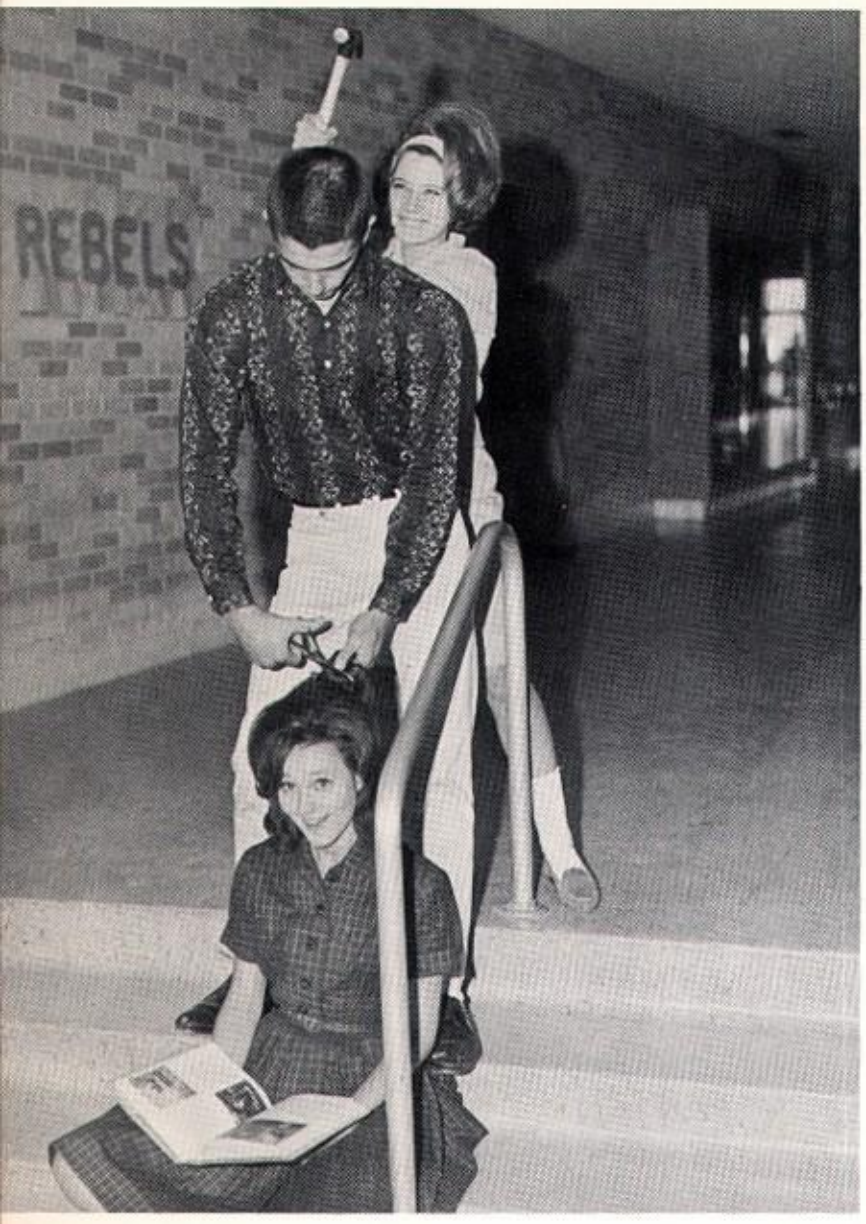
We can thank Roger for the great turn-out when we stomped Hood.

Be calm, Be cool, be Proud,
Because we're City Champs!

Robert doesn't seem to think this is just puppy love.

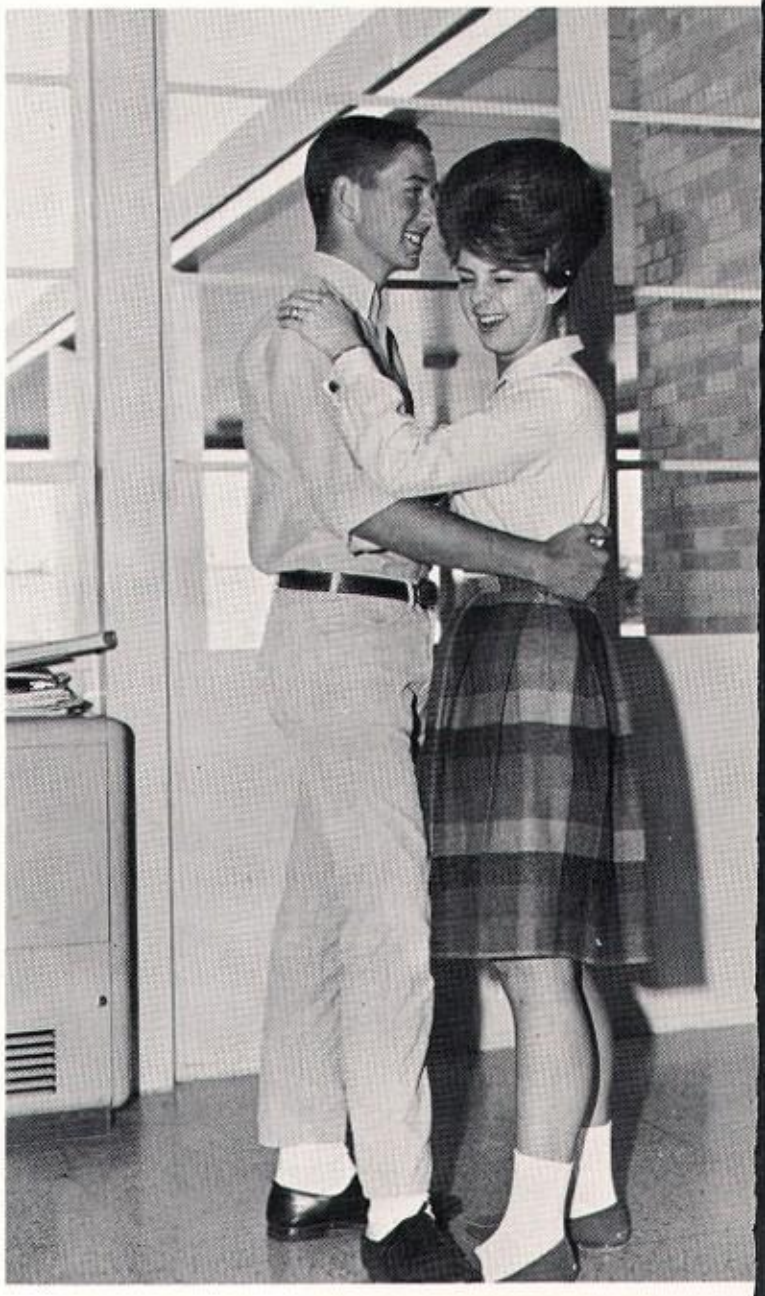
Pinch me, Judy, I must be dreaming. It IS high school. . . .

Fish studying??? This can't be true!

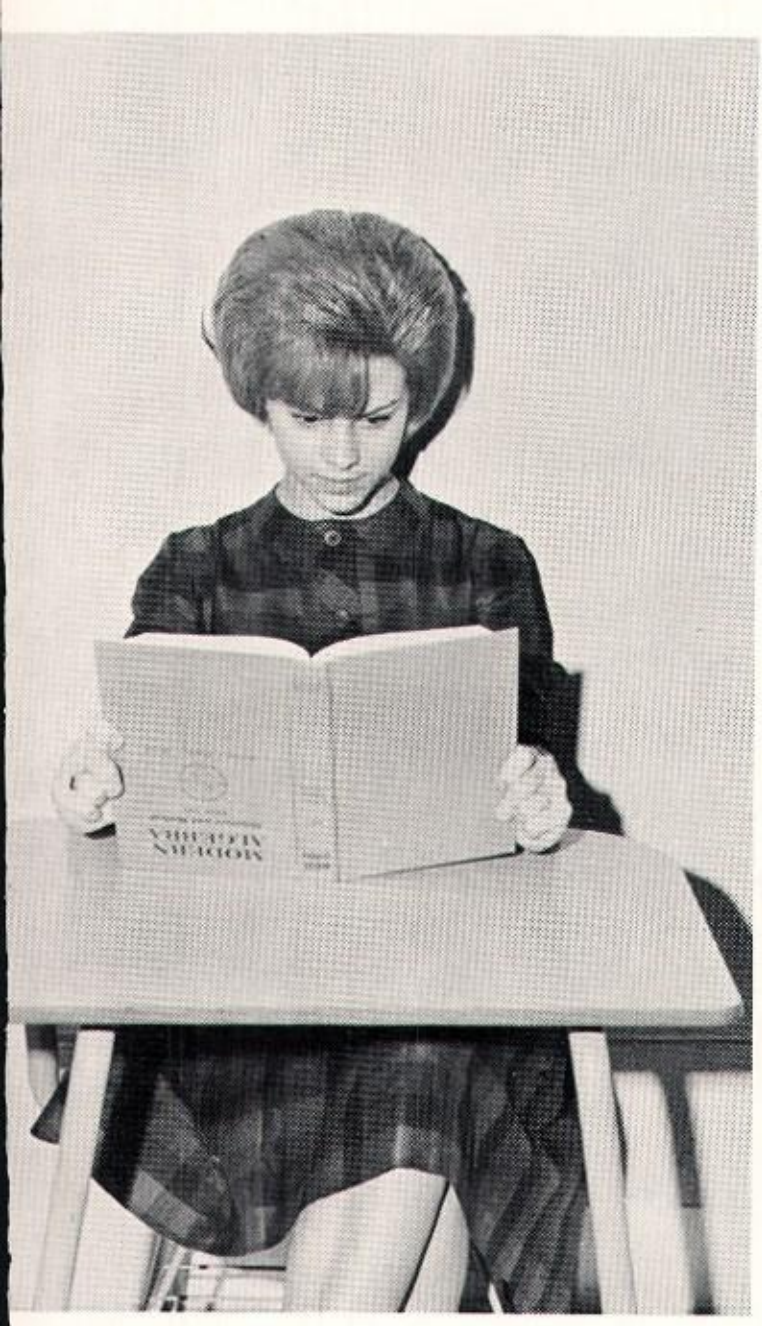


We're the leaders of '67 and we hope our deeds won't bar us from heaven.

But Jackie! I swear I had your crayons yesterday.

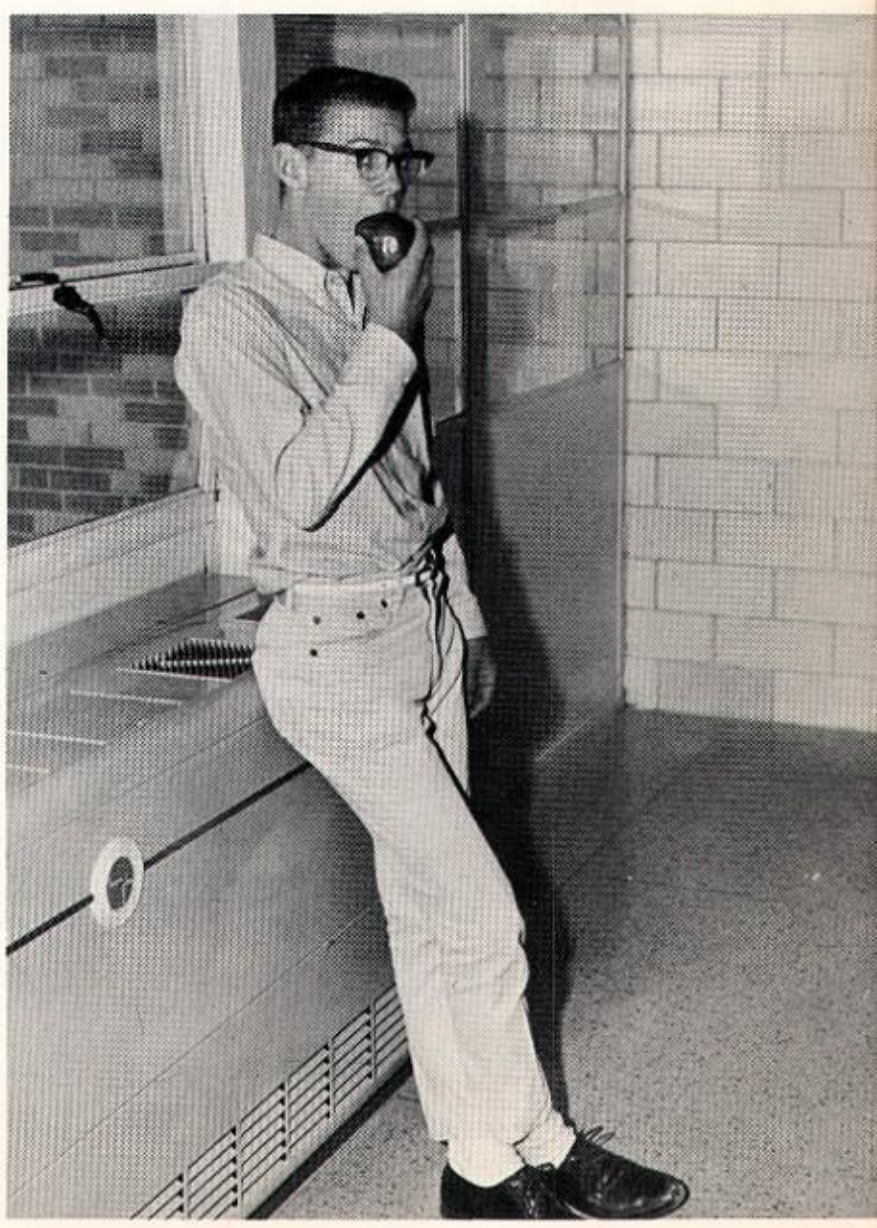


Is it true Fish Flounder when out of water?

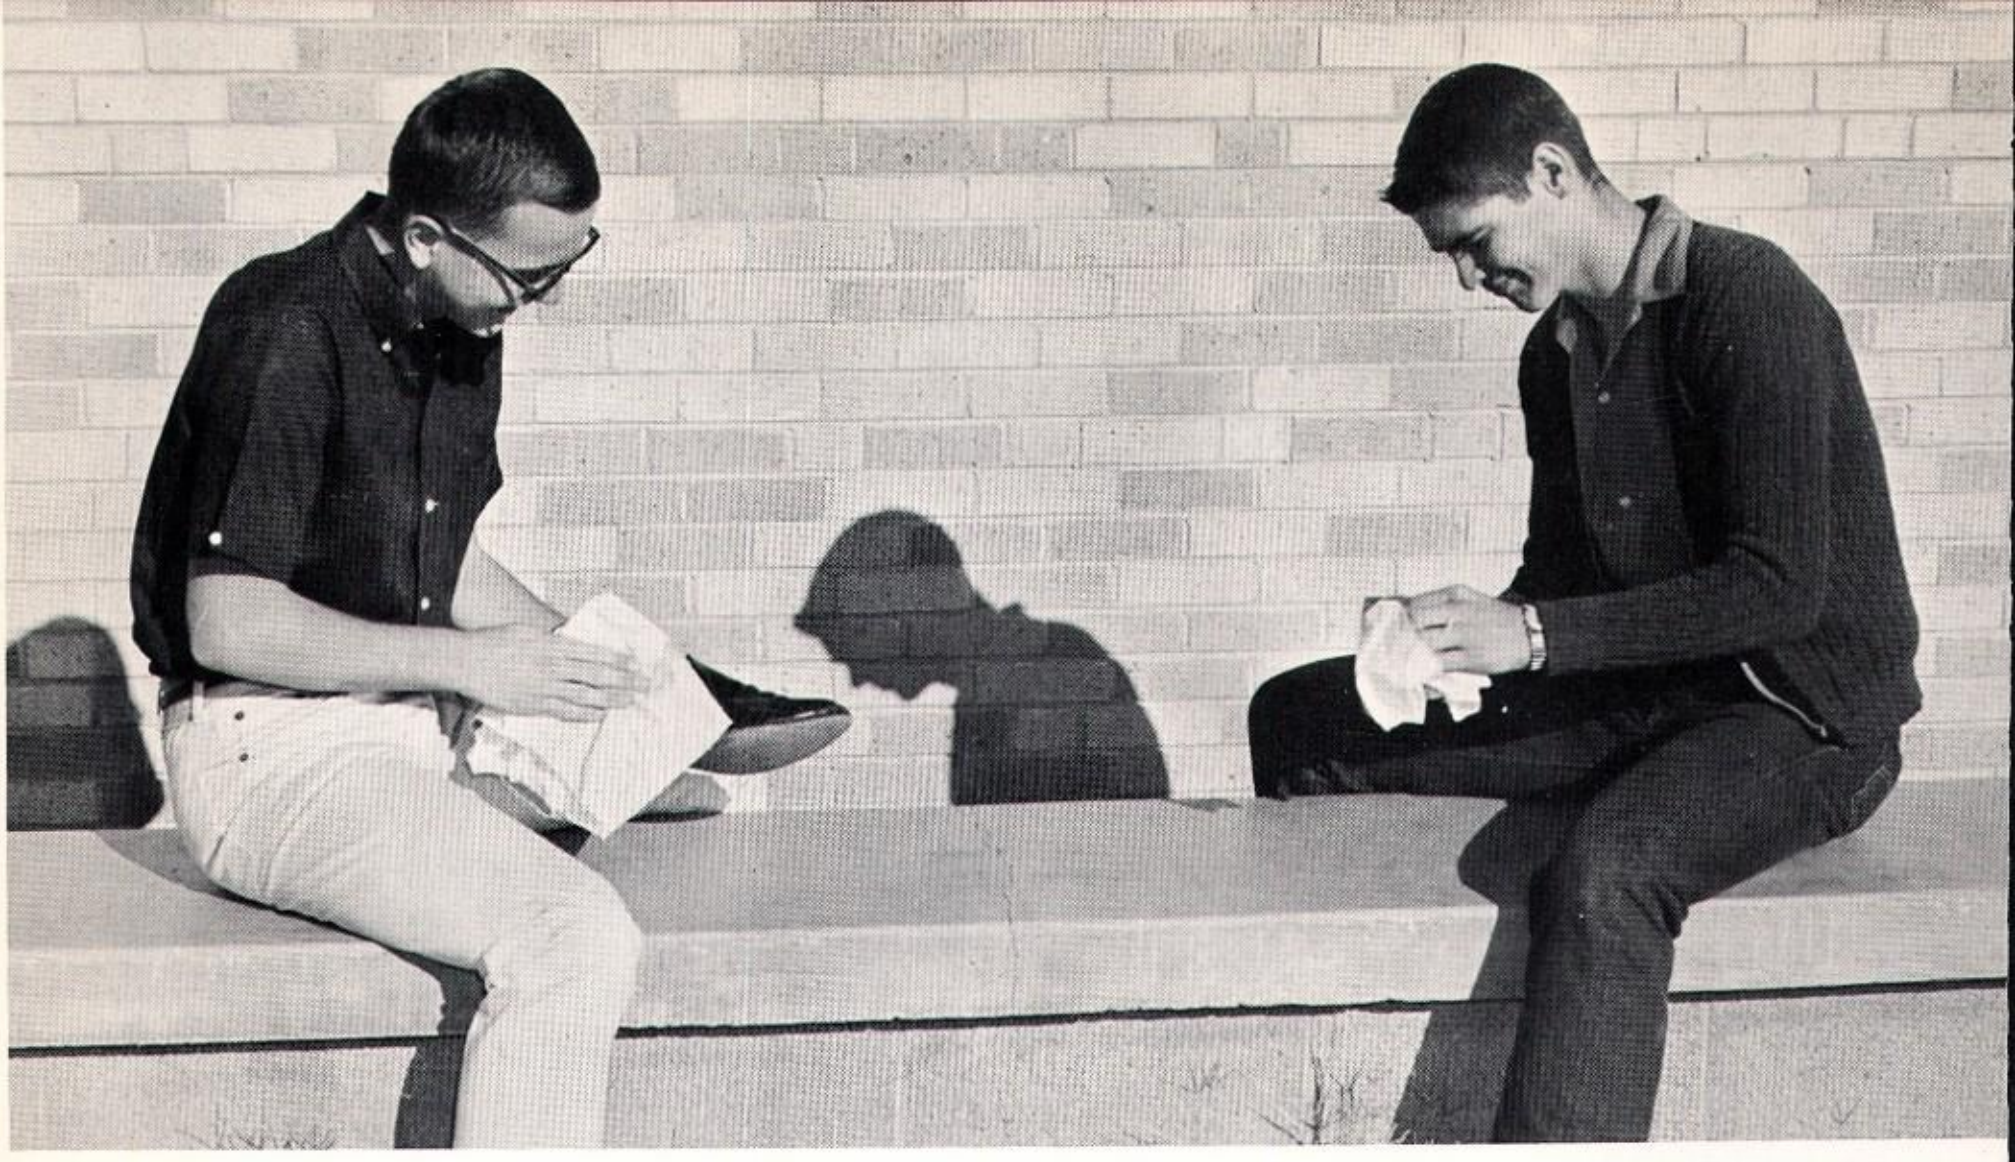


Love does funny things!

Aw, Diane, surely a year of D-hall isn't all that bad!



Dear Lord, cleanse this apple of all sin and worms.



Gosh, Royce has the biggest darn feet!

Will you please let go of my dress!

Our day will come???

Long before Permian was ever thought of . . . almost before there was much of an Odessa . . . the spidery steel of oil derricks reached toward the blue West Texas sky.

It is oil that built Odessa . . . and oil plus its products that caused this growing city to need another large high school.

Pictured here is the first oil well drilled in Ector County . . . and to it and all the others which followed, we say thanks!

Keeping PHS students and faculty informed on the latest school news—that's the job of the Permian Press. Staff members soon learn the hours of careful reporting, writing, and proof reading that is required to produce the school newspaper. With every new edition of the Permian Press, the staff strives to make it an informative, yet interesting, reflection of Permian High School.

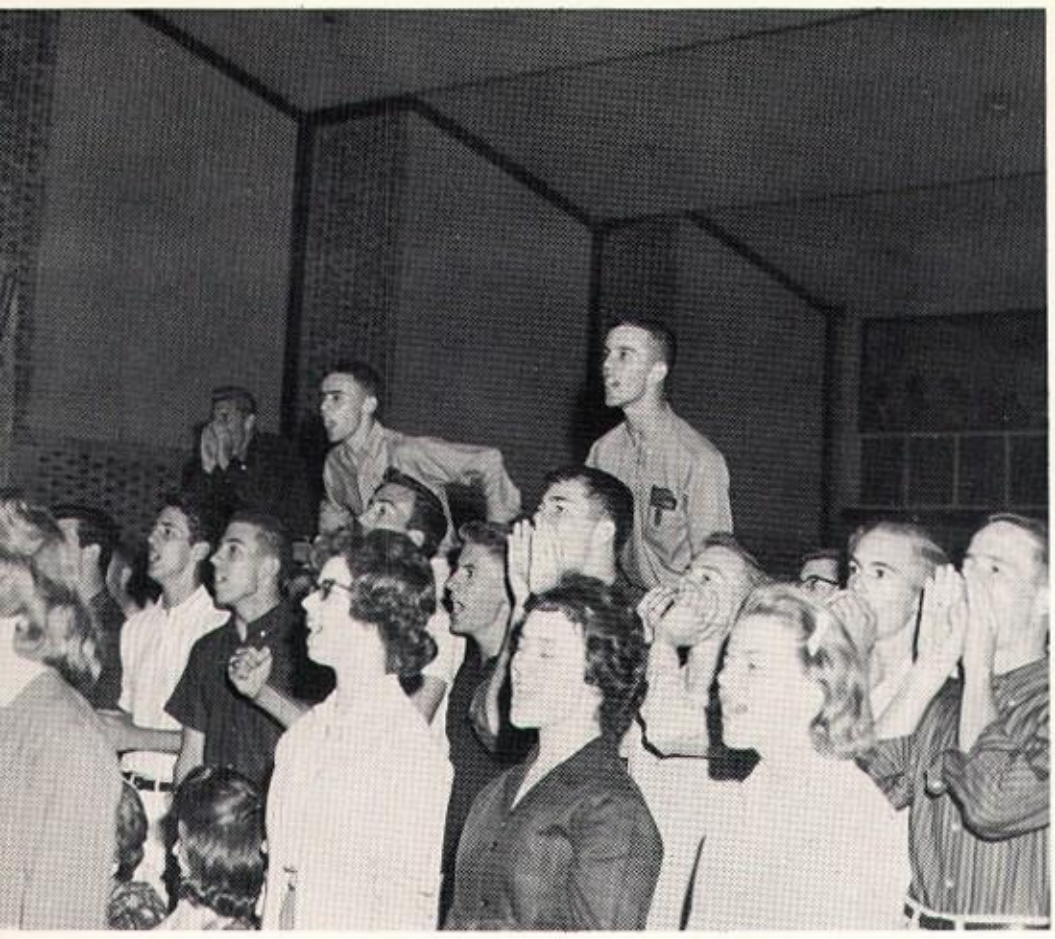
The Parade

One of the highlights of football season came when Permian staged a huge open-air pep rally. The novelty of a parade made this the school's most successful display of spirit.

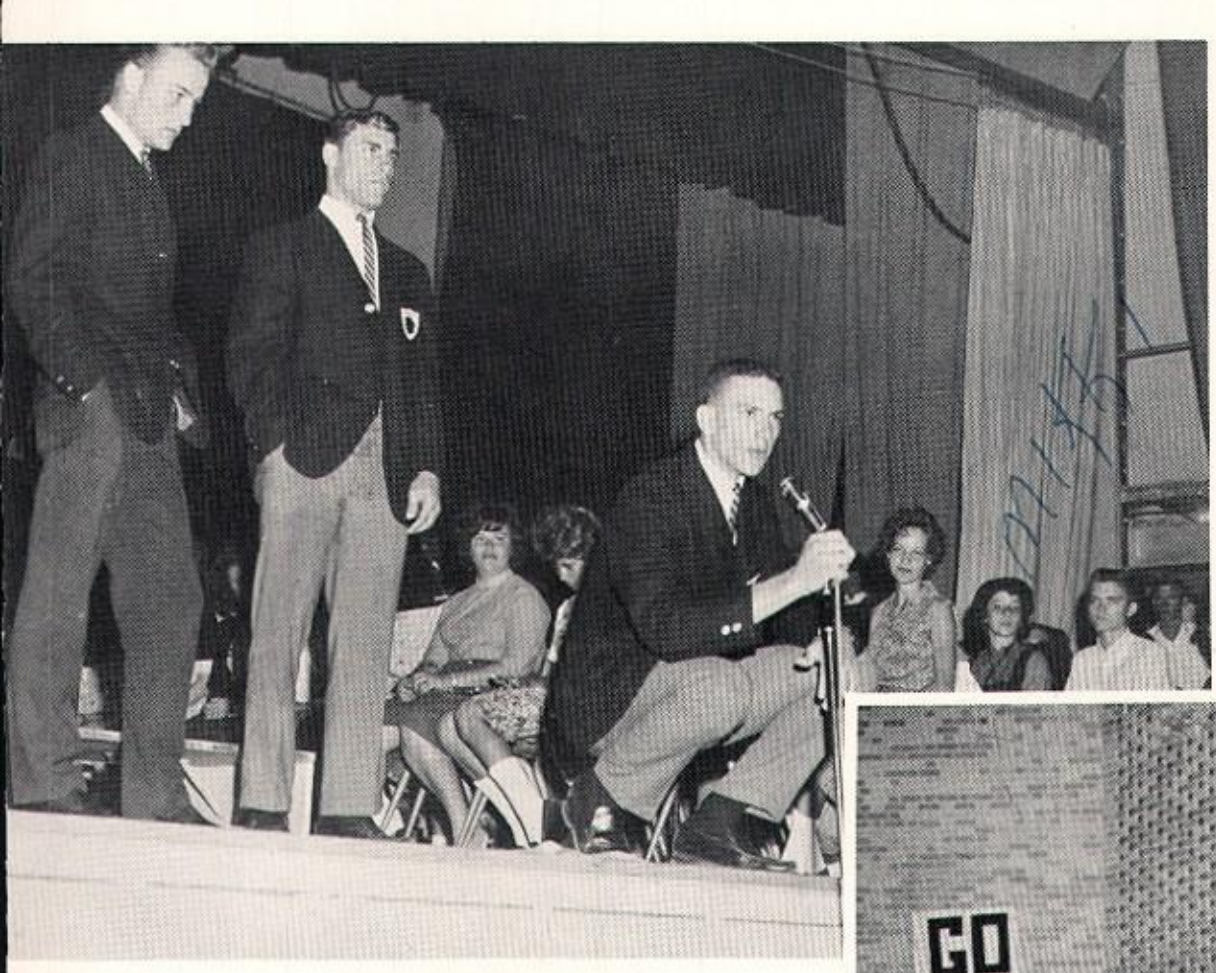


"Then yell, Panthers, yell!"

The rafters rise and fall just as the spirit thermometer does when the 12th man gathers for a Friday session.

Spirit-Raisers !

Always a highlight in pep rallies are the skits. Also looked forward to are the majorettes. Through the efforts of these groups, the spirit of the football team and students is raised.



From Beginning To End !

With the beat of the drums it begins; the captains' speeches inspire school spirit; the students stand in reverence as each one wonders how many times more will he stand for the Alma Mater.
